

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE
OF COMPETITION LAW

LIDC Working Group on Data Regulation & Digital Economy

Participants	LIDC members on inscription, possible to join at any time. Participants are expected to actively participate by sharing their knowledge and experience.
Range of activities	Informal discussions, experience sharing, invitation of external speakers, case law and legislation review, drafting of working papers on specific topics, any other activity of interest for participants
Frequency	Every other month, more often if requested by participants. Suggested time for online meetings: 12.30 to 13.30 CET. Some activities may be conducted by email exchange
Fields covered	IP and competition/antitrust, data protection/privacy, unfair competition, consumer law, sectoral regulation, economics of data, technology, any other area of interest having an impact on the use of personal and non-personal/technical data by businesses and their business models, mainly in the digital sector but also in other industries
Targeted legislation	Draft DMA, DSA, GDPR and privacy regulations, regulation of platforms & social networks, Data Governance Act, Data Act, regulation of AI, Big Data, sectoral regulation such as autonomous vehicles, all regulation having an impact on data
Suggested topics	Participants will be encouraged to suggest topics for discussion and possibly introduce those to the working group. Co-chairs will fix the agenda and moderate the discussions. Some initial suggestions: draft DMA follow up; draft DSA follow up; opening of Apple payment system, App Store rules (regulation in South Korea, enforcement in the Netherlands CMA, Epic Games USA); data protection and antitrust, Google Sandbox review; draft Data Governance Act; draft Data Act; draft AI regulations
Registration	info@ligue.org
Co-chairs	Pranvera Këllezi, Collette Rawnsley, Judit Firniksz, Barbora Jedličková, Stijn Huijts and Alexandr Svetlicinii